*Please note: Donors supporting Jack Ream's recognition will receive the benefits of the appropriate giving levels listed below. They will be recognized in a group listing by name on Jack Ream's recognition plaque which will be displayed on the Administration area entrance wall. They will not receive an individual or business name plaque unless they name a specific space, as a separate gift designation.

As the project continues to renovate the current building in Phase II, additional naming and giving levels will be added. These gifts will also be recognized on the Entrance Wall of the new Administrative/Community addition.

Other ways to give:

ENDOWED and PLANNED GIFTS will be accepted and recognized. Gifts of stock to Friends of the Homeless for Jack's of Hope can eliminate capital gains taxes, also via Charitable IRA rollover gifts. If you are 70 ½, you can give directly to Friends of the Homeless of Tuscarawas County as a charity. Donor advised funds or family foundation gifts are a great way to support this needed project. Estate gifts, such as establishing a Charitable Gift Annuity, gifts of other assets or asking for a matching gift from your employer are all great ways to fulfill your personal philanthropic plan. Please let us know if you need assistance with this process.
